CEO Equal Opportunities Network Launch Event

25 October 2019

Topics

Female Representation: why is increasing the representation of women in companies' leadership important for our companies?

What are the barriers for women today in progressing to companies' leadership and boards, and how should the issues be addressed? Our views and experiences?
How do we walk the talk to address barriers?
What are the challenges and the way forward?

Reykjavik Energy: today a dream workplace in Iceland with two major gender equality awards for its efforts.

Seriously affected by the financial crisis in Iceland and a poor reputation - equal opportunities became the key to the company's success and brand. How did this company succeed in turning a male-dominated workplace to a gender-balanced company and in eliminating the gender pay gap?

Ingka Group (IKEA largest franchisee) approach to closing the gender gap. A look at Ingka group holistic approach to closing the gender gap.

What does it take to close the gender gap in a large multinational corporation?

Leaders' Network: why is a Leaders' international network for engaged and committed leaders useful and important for these issues?
